Starr Wright USA - advocating for federal employees since 1965.

“Starr Wright USA, led by Maurice ‘Hank’ Greenberg, and other military and federal government veterans, has been relied upon for more than 50 years to protect federal employees’ careers and reputations.”

David Cohen - CIA, Deputy Director of Operations
NYPD, Deputy Commissioner for Intelligence

The federal workplace is more complex than ever-

Challenges against federal employees are at an all-time high.

Accusations don't even have to be credible to disrupt your life.

f.e.p.i.

Since the beginning, Starr Wright USA has existed to serve U.S. federal employees. Almost 60 years later, we're still the first choice for federal career insurance.

WHAT IS FEPLI?

Put simply; it's insurance that helps you keep your federal career.

Today, safeguarding your career has become essential. Federal workers at all levels can face allegations of misconduct and wrongdoing - even when acting within the scope of your job.

Many assume that if they face an allegation, the agency will take care of it. In reality, that's not always the case. That's why so many feds carry Federal Employee Professional Liability Insurance (FEPLI).

FEPLI helps you protect your career from the impact of charges made against you on the job. It can provide both legal defense and financial liability coverage.

Starr Wright USA is the creator of FEPLI, and we understand your unique needs. Here, you'll get the best coverage at the lowest rates. You'll receive legal aid from the nation's top-tier law firms. And you'll have the industry leader at your back.

Why take a chance with anyone else?

Already insured elsewhere? We'll take care of switching you over - with no coverage gaps!

With a simple, 5-minute online enrollment form and no waiting period, you can easily cover your career any time - 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. Need advice while choosing your policy? Just ask - our team is here to help.

You'll be glad to know that should a covered claim ever arise, our panel of attorneys will be there to advocate for you. Led by Brownell Landrigan PC in Washington, DC, our nationwide network of legal experts specialize in federal employee matters, including:

- Civil lawsuits
- EEO complaints
- Retaliation claims
- Federal investigations
- Security clearance challenges
- Allegations of criminal misconduct
- Administrative/disciplinary actions
